About Chromatica

Chromatica is a classical choir located in the East Bay. Our website address is www.ChromaticaChorale.org. With 32 adult singers in 4 voice parts (SATB) we are directed by opera tenor David Huff and accompanied by pianist Julie Rieth. Our repertoire includes works by contemporary as well as classical composers, delighting audiences with choral music from the familiar to world premieres. We will be performing a world premiere called 'O Time' by noted choral composer Stacy Garrop this April/May.

Our Audiences

Our mission is to entertain, educate and inspire our community audiences through innovative and diverse programs of classical and contemporary choral music. Our enthusiastic audiences include more than 350 students, families, retirees and music lovers each season – and they are your customers!
